

Regulation LazioTrail 2021

The Lazio Trail is a non-competitive cycling event reserved exclusively for members of the SlowBike ASD (henceforth also called event or adventure).

Art. 1 – Registration

All persons from all nationalities who have reached the age of 18 at the time of registration are admitted to the event.

Art.2– Membership

The Lazio Trail is an event reserved exclusively for members of the SlowBike ASD. Those who are not members of the aforementioned sports club will become so when registering for the event. The Organization may, at any time and at its sole discretion, decide whether to accept the registration or exclude a member from the event if it may damage the image of the event.

ART. 3 – Medical certificate

All participants are REQUIRED to submit a valid “Health Certificate for cardiovascular intensive sport activity (cycling races/events)”. The medical certificate must be sent by email to info@laziotrail.it

The uploaded certificate will be checked within 15 days before the starting date. Anyone who does not comply with this requirement will not be deemed to be properly registered and is not entitled to a refund of the registration fee.

Art. 4 – Route and track

The route starts in Rome and ends in Tarquinia. The route has a length of about 400 km. The route runs on gravel roads, single track and paved roads.

The organization will provide all participants with a complete route map to be followed until the arrival in Tarquinia; it also informs that, at any time and for any safety reasons, as well as traffic and road conditions, including road works, detours and any other unpredictable situations that may be encountered along the planned route, each participant is free, at his own discretion, to leave the route and resume it as soon as these critical conditions have ceased and safety will be guaranteed again. Therefore, participants can divert from the track provided at any time and resume it later, using alternative routes at their own discretion, if the conditions so require. The organization reserves the right to change the route until a few days before departure.

Art. 5 – Common departure

Event date and place of departure: 11 Sep 2021 – Parco degli Acquadotti, Rome, Italy.

Registration and competition pack collection: 10 Sep 2021 - Parco degli Acquadotti, Rome, Italy.

The detailed program of the event will be available to each participant via email.

Art. 6 – Compliance with the traffic laws

The Lazio Trail is a FREE EXCURSION on gravel, trails and paved roads; the entire route will always be open to traffic and, therefore, it is mandatory for all participants to comply with the traffic laws. It is also mandatory to have a bicycle repair kit.

Art. 7 – Characteristics of the event – warning

All participants have to:

- be physically prepared to face long distances
- be able to take care of themselves in any situation they encounter
- be able to use GPS and own basic orientation skills

In the spirit of bikepacking, any kind of external support is forbidden (except in case of emergency).

Art. 8 – Registration and participation fee

Opening of registration: 15 Feb 2021

Closing of registration: 27 Aug 2021

Registration fee:

40 Euro from 15 Feb to 22 Feb 2021

50 Euro from 23 Feb to 15 Aug 2021

70 Euro from 16 Aug to 27 Aug 2021

Registration includes:

- MSP 2021 Membership
- Full route track in .gpx format
- Digital RoadBook
- Lazio Trail gadgets
- Finisher Certificate 2021

Art. 9 – Validity of registration

The registration can be considered valid only after completing the electronic registration procedure with subsequent electronic crediting of the amount in favor of the organizer and sending the medical certificate.

The Lazio Trail organization may, at any time and at its sole discretion, without further reason, decide whether to accept or deny the registration of any person.

Art. 10 – Substitution and waiver of participation

It is not possible to transfer your registration to another participant. If a registered participant does not take part in the Event, the participation fee will not be refunded in any case and the competition pack will not be sent.

Art. 11 – Cancellation and change of location/date of the event

Cancellation – If, due to force majeure, the event should not take place, the amount paid at the time of registration will not be refunded, but the participation fee alone will be considered valid in case of application for the next edition. In case of postponing the event to next year, the organization is entitled to keep a part of the registration fee as reimbursement for the membership card and administration fee; the fee kept is €15.00. The application for registration to the following year and the payment of the sport card and administration fee must be made within the date indicated by the organization after the cancellation of the event.

Change of location/date – In addition, due to force majeure or other serious reasons, which could compromise the preparation of the event or the participation of at least half of the people registered, the Organization reserves the right to change the location and/or the date of the event within the same year. In this case, the fee paid for the registration is valid for the event on the rescheduled date, without any additional cost for the participants. However, it is not possible to transfer the registration to the following year's edition. Have you registered and can't participate on the rescheduled date? Then you get a partial refund of your registration fee. The organisation will retain €15.00 to cover administration costs. The partial refund can be requested up to three weeks after the official notification of the changed event date.

Art. 12 – Changes

In the face of new environmental and/or health circumstances and/or changes in the regulatory framework, the Organization reserves the right to make the consequent reasonable changes to the regulations at any time. The official website of the event where these regulations are published constitutes the only reference for information on the event. Therefore, it will not be possible to refer to any other different communications previously given via newsletter, on the press or on social media.

Art. 13 – Approval, consent, authorization, etc...

By applying to Lazio Trail each participant:

- declares to have read and approved these Regulations and to accept all parts of them;
- is responsible for their own behavior during and after the event;
- declares to be in good physical condition and to have given the organization a valid medical certificate for cycling, relieving the organization of all the responsibility and of any damage that may occur as a result of their participation in the event;

- declares that they are aware that the event is non-competitive and has no rankings but just an order of arrival based on the personal timing in order to have a security check on all participants;
- declares to be aware that there is no medical care service, food and mechanical service provided by the organization of Lazio Trail cycling event; In case of emergency call the Italian Emergency number 112.
- declares to be aware that there is no service provided for picking up participants who pulled out, and there is no obligation for the organization to rescue or research a missing participant;
- declares to be aware that there is no obligation for the organization to guard the roads crossed by the cyclists who are taking part in the event;
- declares to be aware that the participation fee will not be refunded in any case;
- declares to have experience and to be aware of the possibility of encountering adverse weather conditions and to be able to orient and cycle on the hills and medium and low mountain area in such conditions;
- declares to be aware that the organizer “SlowBike ASD” is not a professional organizer, but it acts only for recreational purposes and not for financial purposes (1174 Italian Civil Code); therefore, the participation in the Lazio Trail is always by free choice and for recreational purposes. It follows that the above-mentioned organizer, ASD, has not and, in any case, is released from any liability related to the Lazio Trail tour. It is also released from any liability for events that occurred to the cyclist during the Lazio Trail such as: accidents, loss of route, physical problems, theft, etc... Therefore, it follows that the Lazio Trail cycling tour is intended to be a mere spontaneous and independent gathering of cyclists and amateur cyclists on free and personal tours;
- declares that, participating in the Lazio Trail cycling tour, he waives any legal action in any capacity against the ASD organizer mentioned above, recognizing that it is a non-professional association acting for recreational purposes without the requirements (pursuant to art. 1174 Italian Civil Code).
- gives his consent to the use of his personal data, also for commercial purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Consolidation Act no. 196 of 30/06/2003 and the European Union Privacy Regulation 2017/679 (GDPR/18);
- gives the organizers the widest consent to the use of any video and/or photographic images taken during the days of the event, in the manner permitted by law, including for profit, while giving the organization the right to transfer these images to third parties.

The aforesaid authorization to use one's images must be understood as being given indefinitely and without territorial limits throughout the world, for use in various publications and videos, including, but not limited to, promotional and/or advertising materials on all media. The organization may also assign the rights of use provided for in this agreement to third parties and to its institutional and commercial partners.

The organization refuses any responsibility for itself and its collaborators, for accidents or damage to persons or things, which may occur before, during and after the event or as a result of it.
